THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – JANUARY 24, 2021

A PURPOSE IN LIFE

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus said to Simon and Andrew: "Come follow me and I will make you fishers of people."

Jesus speaks to them in a language which they would understand. He relates to them in images that they could grasp. And for sure, Jesus does not say: "I will make you fishers of men" to everyone. He says it to fishermen: "You have been catching fish, now I'm going to get you catching people!"

To us, Jesus will use a completely different image. To someone in the financial world, he may say, "You are helping people with their treasure on earth, and how to manage it. Now I'm going to get you helping them to think about eternal treasures as well." To the housewife, he may say, "You've been looking after a home on earth. Now I want you to help people think about a home in heaven." To the teacher, he may say, "You have been helping children to learn; now I want you to help all people to learn what's really important in life". And so on.

Jesus calls us and offers to change us, to give us a purpose in life. Jesus' offer of change is not just for our own sake, but also for the sake of others, not just for our own benefit, but also for the benefit of others.

Therefore, a meeting with Jesus will give us a purpose for life. Do we realize that? What are we going to do the next?

Cardinal Collins has designated the weekend of February 13/14, 2021 as Marriage Sunday in the Archdiocese of Toronto. This occasion provides an opportunity to honour husband and wife while saluting the faithfulness, sacrifice, and joy that comes with the marriage covenant. To those preparing for marriage, newlyweds, and those that have been companions on the journey for decades, we offer our prayers and best wishes in a special way this weekend.

Let us celebrate the tremendous contributions of married couples who continue to strengthen our faith community. Let us also pray and extend loving support to those who have lost a spouse or are struggling from a broken relationship.
