SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER – MAY 22, 2022

THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Gospel for this 6th Sunday of Easter contains Jesus' tender farewell to His disciples. The Gospel starts with a very beautiful statement: "Whoever loves me will keep my word."

Jesus will go away but His departure will not mark the end of His ministry and of His mission to bring people back to God. In fact, His death and resurrection will be the culmination of His work. But He will also mark a different kind of His presence among us. He will no longer walk with His disciples as the Rabbi of Nazareth. He will be the glorious but invisible Lord.

Yet, He will not leave them orphans. He will send the Holy Spirit as their Paraclete, that is, their consoler, advocate, inspirer and one who will teach them everything about Jesus. With the help of the Holy Spirit, they will certainly be capable of continuing Jesus' work: to announce the Good News of salvation to the whole world. The Spirit will remind them of all things Jesus taught them.

The same Holy Spirit that Peter and his companions received still is working until now to help and make sure that we know the implication and meaning of the word of Jesus Christ in the ever changing and ever more complex realities of modern life. The Holy Spirit makes us be sure what Jesus would do and how he would act in the present concrete situations of our daily lives.

The problem is: do we realize that the Holy Spirit is in our lives? What should we do to work together with the Holy Spirit in our daily lives?

Fr. Aegidius Warsito, SCJ
